
WEST VIRGINIA
CLINICAL & TRANSLATIONAL SCIENCE INSTITUTE

(2.7) Leave of Absence

Overview

The West Virginia Clinical & Translational Science Institute (WVCTSI) is comprised of employees from several partner organizations and follows the Human Resources policies and procedures as outlined by each employees specific hiring organization.

Any individual supported by WVCTSI funds must report to the Institute if he or she plans to take an extended leave of absence, as managed through the designated HR organization.

If any changes to salary or effort are anticipated the Director of Research Administration must be notified immediately as it impacts WVCTSI. Any changes to salary or effort that is supported by WV CTSI must be requested in a written document that concisely presents the rationale for the change. The WV CTSI Director or her/his designee will respond within two weeks whether or not the requested changes are approved and the effective date of any approved changes.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to describe required procedures as relates to a leave of absence. Individuals receiving WVCTSI funding support are permitted to take a leave of absence for personal or family situations such as parental leave, child care, elder care, medical conditions, or a disability. A leave of absence or sabbatical must be requested and approved according to the individual's human resources organization protocol, and then communicated to the WVCTSI director.

Scope

This policy applies to all personnel funded by the WVCTSI, including West Virginia University employees, West Virginia University Healthcare employees, WVU Research Corporation employees, and any employees at WV School of Osteopathic Medicine and Charleston Area Medical Center partner sites.

Clarification

If considering a leave of absence from the WVCTSI project, a notification to the WVCTSI Principal Investigator (PI) must be submitted. Although the PI may not have the supervisory or hierarchical authority to approve or deny personnel requests, the PI does have the responsibility of the mission of the institute and the absence of constituents could potentially impact the ability of CTSI to achieve stated goals.
